Weekly Newsletter - January 17, 2014

Reflections, Quotes, & Proverbs: “ I am not afraid of storms, for I am learning how to sail my ship.” -- Louisa May Alcott

Catholic Schools Week begins Sunday, January 26th starting with a special 10:30am Mass, followed by the Carnival at the Rugby Armory from 12:00-3:00pm. This year's theme is Communities of Faith, Knowledge and Service. Also, remember that each family is responsible for donating two cakes for the cake walk.

For CSW on Friday, January 31st we will go sledding or skating. Student's that are skating will need to bring skates. Please start looking for skates if you don't have any to wear.

Parents: With the onset of colder weather, please make sure your child wears a warm coat, gloves, boots and hat. DON'T FORGET YOUR SHOES!

The Raffle Committee reminds you to be selling those tickets! The drawing is at the end of this month! Remember, the tickets are easy to sell and we need each family to sell or buy both of their books. Please consider getting more! Door to door sales work well too if the weather would warm up! Please turn tickets and money in as you sell them. Thank you for your support!

No School-- Monday, January 20th.

1st. Reconciliation preparation: Class will be held Sunday, January 19th for parents of all 2nd grade students preparing for 1st Reconciliation. We'll meet at 9:15 am in Dorothy's Room in the rectory basement. We will not be done in time for the late Mass so please plan on attending any of the other 2 Masses. Letters have been sent regarding this! Call Monica with questions (6388).

Please continue to send your labels to the school office. We save Our Family, Box Tops and Campbell's label's.

Reminder: Miss Yri has volunteered to stay after school to help with homework. She will stay after on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from 3:30 - 4:30.

Little Flower School staff and students will throw a pantry shower for Sister Jean Louise and Sister Mary Ruth. You may bring your items to the school during Catholic Schools Week. Please place your donation item in the box by the door to the art supply room. The following items are some of the things that they could use: Lentils, barley, fish, tuna, old fashioned oatmeal and bathroom tissue.

Menu change: Tuesday, January 28th-Scalloped potatoes & ham. Wednesday, January 29th-Chicken noodle soup, meat & cheese sandwiches.
