+++ SKILL OF THE WEEK: Asking for Permission: 1. Look at the person. 2. Use a calm and pleasant voice. 3. Say 'May I...' 4. Accept the answer calmly. Sometimes students get in trouble because they don't ask permission to do something before they do it. When asking for permission, remember that even when you get an answer you don't want to hear, accept it and be respectful towards the person you are talking to. When you ask for permission, it can prevent problems and misunderstandings from happening.
